NEW YORK (A. L.), 9: DETROIT, 8. Another extra inning game was fought out at American League Park yesterday, the New Yorks beating the Detroits 9 to 8 in ten innings. The daring of Jack Chesbro scored the winning run. Chesbro drew a base on balls in the tenth. Dougherty bunted safely and Greminger made a bad throw of erty to second. There were two strikes on Williams when Chesbro dashed for the plate as Killian was winding up his arm. The big-pitcher was on top of the plate when the ball get there, but just to make things sure Wilms sent a bounder to O'Leary, Chesbro was in, and the game was over.

A seething game it was. The score was tied several times, but at one time the Detroits had a big lead, only to be brought to even terms by a spleudid rally at the bat by New York. The Detroits did a lot of rowdy four-fineh kicking. They made such a how! in the fourth inning when Fultz-scored on Osteen's single that Pitcher Mullen was put off the field. The decision calling Fultz safe was close, but correct, and the Detroits was dose, but correct, and the Detroits award and growled and delayed the game. They were not able to beat New York in playing, but as kickers they were proficient.

There was hard hitting, not a little good fielding and more poor fielding. Dougherty was very much like Lefty Davis in left field. Williams, Anderson, Fultz, Barrett, Crawford and Robinson did well in the field. Clarkson was batted out of the box in the seventh inning, when five hits and four runs were bunched on him. His control had been poor. Kitson, too, was batted to the bench in the seventh. Killian, his successor, was wild and was no improvement. The Detroits made nine nits off Clarkson and one off Chesbro, Griffith's mainstay.

Williams, Anderson, Elberfeld and Fultz bunched four hits in the first inning, and two runs came in. The Detroits scored twice in the third on two bases on balls and hits by Carr and Crawford. They scored once in the feurth. Greminger reached second on Dougherty's fumble of his hit. Robinson fouled out, then Conroy fumbled Wood's easy offering. Kitson hit to Elberfeld, and there would have been a double play had Williams covered second. As it was, Elberfeld and very constant to the bag himself, and the time lost stopped a double play, and allowed Greminger to tally. The New Yorks evened up in their half on bases on balls to Fultz and Conroy, and Osteen's hit to right. Fultz was on the plate when tagged and there was no occasion for all the loud meuthed fuss over the decision. was in, and the game was over.

A seething game it was. The score was the decision.

A base on balls and Robinson's triple gave Detroit a run in the sixth. Robinson tried to stretch his smite into a homer, but Williams got the ball to Kleinow ahead of him.

resultant runs gave Detroit a formidable lead.

Chief among the points brought out by the contest was New York's gameness, and the sandy locals aguared accounts once more. Pougherty drew four balls and Williams was safe on a smoking grounder to short. Anderson gave Carr a red hot one, and he, too, was safe. Elberfeld brought in two runs with a safety to right. Dougherty previouly shaving talfied on a wild pitch. Crawford fielded Elberfeld's hit to the plate in good shape, and Anderson would have been out at the plate had Wood handled the balt cleanly. Fultz wacrifieed, and Conroy's single scored Elberfeld Reville, who went into play at this stage and hit hard to right, but Crawford's fine throw to the plate nipped Conroy. A one handed catch by Beyille in the tenth saved Conroy from an error and kept the Detroit fussers from scoring. Then came Chestor's fervid, successful and picturesque plunge-over the trail. The first race run was the ten mile event, class 2, in which the interest centred in the speed and splendid driving of Mr. Brokaw's Renault, which made a runaway of it from the start. Bernin, the chauffeur, reeled off mile after mile in the first part of the race close to a minute, and made the second mile in a fifth of a second less than a minute. He lapped all his competitors except Vaughn and the Decauville, and was within 100 yards of having overtaken him at the finish.

In the fifteen mile race only three cars started and they got away in fine style. Sartori, with the Vanderblit Mercedes, jumped to the pole in the first turn and took the lead and gradually increased it each mile. He took the corners in daring style and elicited rounds of applause. He beat the Mensel Mercedes by seven-eighths of a mile and the Vaughn Decauville by a mile and a quarter.

At this meeting the final details of the cruise will be arranged. The schedule will be as follows:

small for enrollment: Friday, Aug. 19, Astor Cup races. In the evening the fleet will illuminate.

The preparatory signal for squadron runs will be two guns fired in rapid succession on the flagship and the display at the fore-topmast of the code letter P over the signal indicating the next port. The start will be made promptly one hour later from a line previously established by the regatta committee, at which time the preparatory signal will be hauled down. The regatta committee will issue instructions for the runs from port to port. The commodore's cups will be sailed for during the cruise.

It is probable that all four of the 70-footers will race during the cruise. The fainbow, the Yankee and the Mineola are being got ready, and it is said that W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr. will fit out the Virginia. These boats will start in the Astor cup race, and in that contest will meet the Sybarita, the English yawl, and the Vigilant. In the schooner race the Corona and Lasca will meet.

Many yachts are now fitting out just for this cruise, and it is expected that the fleet will be quite as large as in former years and it is there will be pleaty of the racing.
